

Please do not bow to the NAB. Please continue to allow XM Radio to offer local traffic and weather programming. More consumer choice is better- not less. Traditional broadcast stations should innovate if they want to remain competitive with this new technology.